FOREWORD

*The sea awoke at midnight from its sleep,
And round the pebbly beaches far and wide
I heard the first wave of the rising tide
Rush onward with uninterrupted sweep;
A voice out of the silence of the deep,
A sound mysteriously multiplied
As of a cataract from the mountain's side,
Or roar of winds upon a wooded steep.
So comes to us at times, from the unknown
And inaccessible solitudes of being,
The rushing of the sea-tides of the soul;
And inspirations that we deem our own,
Are some divine foreshadowing and foreseeing
Of things beyond our reason or control.
Longfellow*

To "Ike" Kempt we, the '61 WARRIOR staff, dedicate this book in recognition and appreciation of his diligent work, willing cooperation, and friendship which he has given WHS, its staff, and students throughout his years of service here.

*The sea-wash never ends
The sea-wash repeats, repeats.
Only old songs? Is that all the sea knows?
Only the old strong songs?
Is that all?
The sea-wash repeats, repeats.*

MAINTENANCE

The unseen workers of WHS are these fine custodians. Early in the morning to late in the evening, "Ike" Kempt, "Cliff" Hayes, and Jim Olney are busy keeping our grounds clean and our buildings in good condition.

Learning Latin requires much thought.

Comprenez vous?

In band, math, German, journalism and so on down the hall we see students industriously working or perhaps just absorbing knowledge. But whatever the method of student or teacher or course of study—learning is the heart of Comprenez vous?

Reading class continually works for improvement.

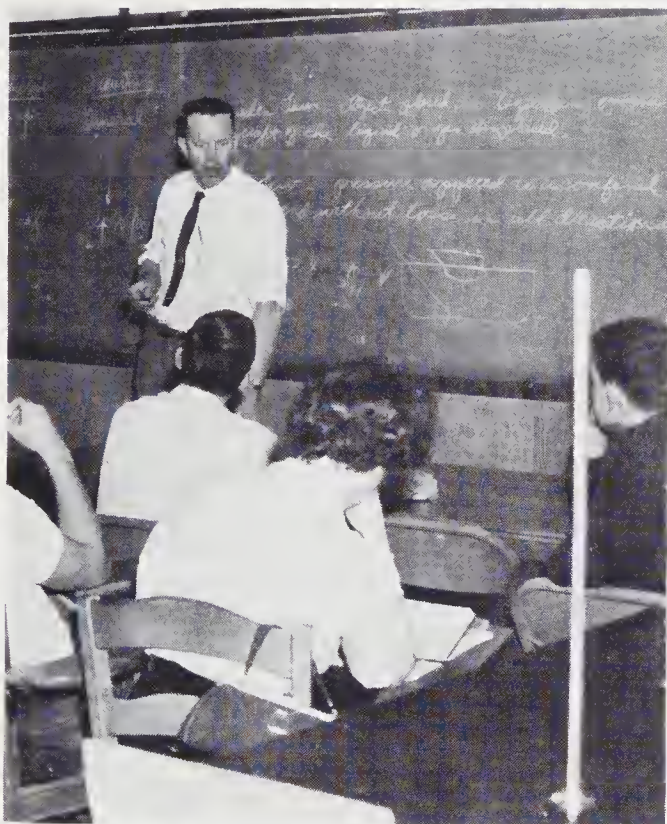

Journalism class works to meet a deadline.

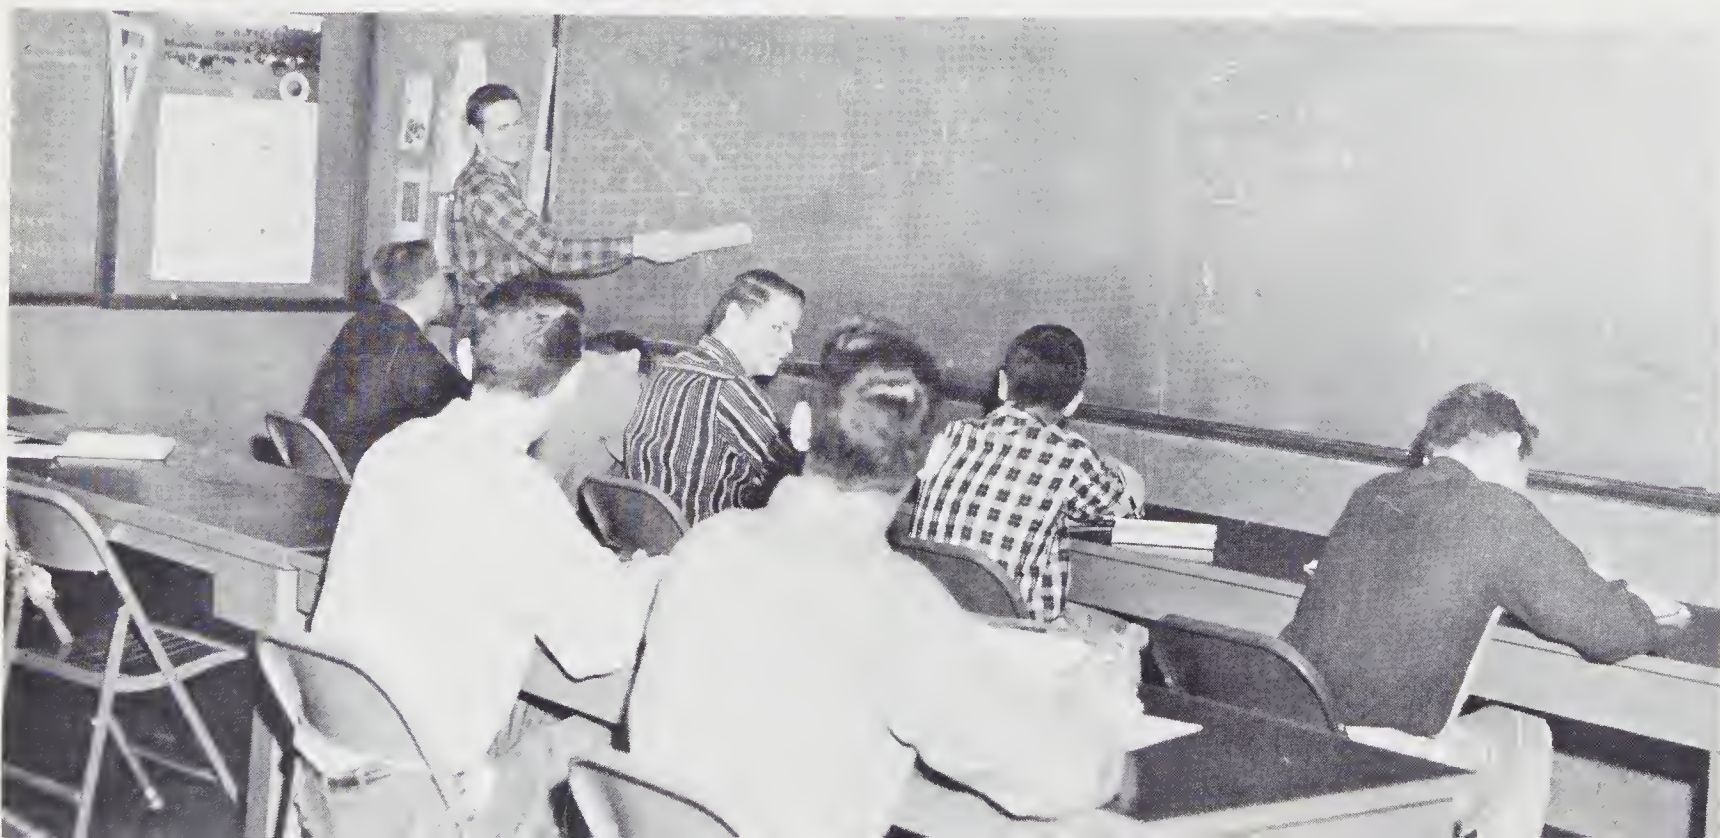

With a teacher's explanation English is much easier.

This biology class seemed to be crowded with eager students.

Science and math provide intriguing study.

Determinants or detriments was the question.

Of course this is chemistry II!

You see it's really very simple

Interested students can acquire a wealth of knowledge in science and math at WHS. This year both physics II and chemistry II were offered for the first time. The excellent math program gives students the background for more advanced college study.

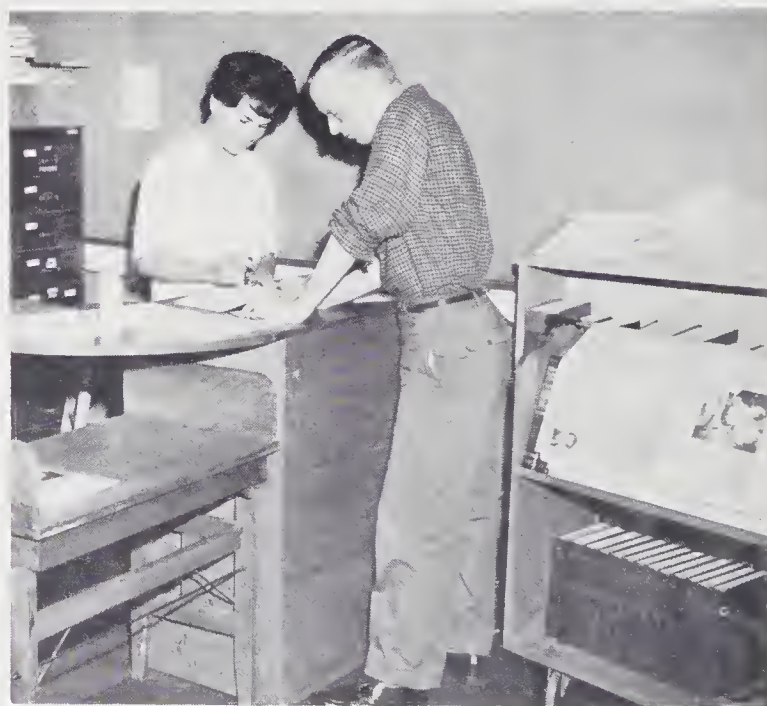

A little bit of this, a little bit of that—VOOOM ! ! !

Deep concentration in art class

Art, speech, and band classes develop hidden talents among WHS students. The library staff provides invaluable services through the maintenance of a quiet study hall and the many fiction and non-fiction volumes.

Robert Newton expounded these theories

The scholars

Our future homemakers learn the skills of sewing, cooking, and personal neatness during their home economics class while the boys of WHS study the techniques of woodworking.

The manly art of shop.

Another five-minute drill.

In the typing, business machines, office training, shorthand, and bookkeeping classes students learn to work efficiently and reliably. WHS offers fine training in these classes for those who wish to pursue a career in the business world.

This is the proper way.

A man with a problem

Efficient use of a studyhall means these students will have their work finished.

ACTS

So do our minutes hasten to their end;
Each changing place with that which goes before
In sequent toil all forwards do contend.*

FALL

The tide rushes in with a burst of school activities: registration, freshman initiation, football games, assemblies, Homecoming, junior class play—"Dark Mountain", King Turkey contest, and our own mock national election. Once more the students begin another school year at WHS.

PATTI PIKE—September: Miss School Spirit

SPRING

The tide begins to ebb and soon the school year is over. But although students are finishing their school work and school activities end in June, the last months are filled with things to do. The seniors are the busiest working on their class play "Father Knows Best", Elks' Youth Day, term papers, Class Day, Baccalaureate, trip to Salem, skip day, and Graduation. Other activities are the Prom, Exchange Student Day, Danny's Birthday Party, school elections, baseball games, track meets, and the Regatta celebration.

The exchange students were warmly received at WHS.

Danny was given his presents in in a charming way.

Jon Rowley breaks through gaping hole during Vernonia tilt

WHS's '60 football team suffered one of its poorest seasons during the past year with an 0 - 8 won-loss record, and consequently finished at the bottom of the Cowapa League. It was decided at the end of the football season to drop out of the Cowapa League to become independent until the school grows larger.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

The Girls' League is an organization which includes each girl of WHS as a member. This year the Club sponsored a Thanksgiving program, including a King Turkey Contest, to collect food for needy families, the selection of girls of the month and the Girl of the Year, Big and Little Sisters and in the spring a Mother-Daughter Tea with the theme of Tiptoe Through the Tulips. Officers for the year were J. Smith, president; C. Wadsworth, vice-president; L. Voelker, treasurer; M. Hitchman, secretary; P. Elliot, scribe, D. Haerer, asst. scribe; and M. Karna, sergeant-at-arms.

HONOR SOCIETY

Keith Soukkala is installed as a new member

This year eight new members were installed in WHS's chapter of the National Honor Society. They were Mary Van, Keith Soukkala, Cheryl Wadsworth, Darlene Haerer, Mary Jean Hitchman, Shirley Knotts, Pamele See, and Mike Thompson. All members are chosen by the faculty on the basis of their character, scholarship, leadership, and service and each must maintain a grade point average above 3.0. The group raises money for the March of Dimes each

"W" CLUB

During the '60-61 season the energetic "W" Club traveled to the State A-1 Football Championship in Portland, managed the concession stand at the basketball games, sponsored a dance, headed a fun-nite, and sold "name tapes". In between these activities a new constitution was formulated and passed doing away with the old title, Letterman's Club, and forming the present "W" Club.

WHS SMOKE SIGNAL

Although the '60-61 Smoke Signal staff failed to meet a few deadlines they gained basic knowledge about story write-ups and actual production of the paper. One of the highlights of the Smoke Signal this year was the boy of the month feature which was introduced for the first time to WHS.

Co-editors Butch Bergin and Marilyn Karna discussed problems with advisor Mr. DonTigny.

WARRIOR

The '61 WARRIOR staff led by editor, Susan Lamb, recorded the past school year in a yearbook to remember. For the first time the students of WHS received their yearbooks in the fall so that all the activities of the school year could be covered. Mr. DonTigny, staff advisor and head of the Photography Department, gave immeasurably of his time and energy to improve the quality of our photography. Staff members who are not pictured on this page include D. Haerer, C. Wadsworth, E. Estes, M. Karna, K. Soukkala, E. Van, B. Young, and K. Osgard.

With the superb leadership of Ken Doney, this year's Student Council was the most active that WHS has ever seen. The Council members led the student body on a school improvement drive and worked throughout the year to boost school spirit. In January they presented the annual Student Council Dance. The Exchange Student Button Drive to raise funds for next year's foreign exchange student was another of the Student Council's projects.

Class of '61, you've come to the end of four full years at WHS. Already excited with plans for the year to come you pause to recall some of the highlights of your high school career.

During your four years you have sponsored many activities including cedar chest drawings, dances—which were always successful—such as the lovely Homecoming celebration, the Junior-Senior Prom, and the dazzling Christmas Ball, and two class plays, "The Unguided Miss" and "Father Knows Best". Beside planning extra-curricular activities you have worked hard in your classes and have earned an admirable scholastic record.

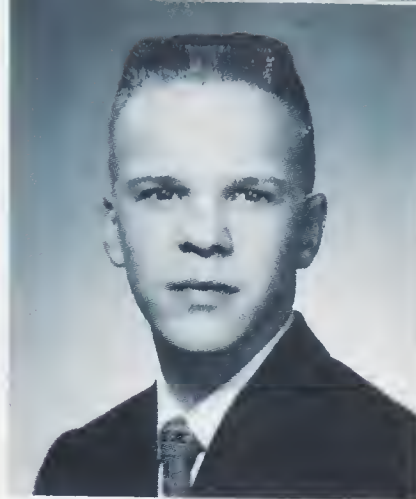

This past year you took part in the traditional events—skip day, trip to Salem, class day, and others—realizing that they represented the spirit of companionship, fun, and effort which have been evident in the classrooms and during the activities throughout your years at WHS.

SKIP DAY AND CLASS DAY

That last day

Junior officers are Larry Ferrell, sergeant-at-arms; Cheryl Wadsworth, representative; Lowell Ford, president; Peggy

Darnell, treasurer; David Reed, vice-president. Not pictured is Barbara Hemphill, secretary.

One more step and you'll be seniors. The work seems easier and you chuckle at the underclassman antics. As juniors you have met disappointments and have earned your long-anticipated senior year.

The Homecoming celebration—bonfire, rally, parade, and the dance, Deep Purple—was your first major event of the year. Can you ever forget sweeping popcorn from the halls and your first play, Dark Mountain? And with the Junior-Senior Prom you closed the year of activities.

Of course, with all the fun and work of social activities you didn't forget the all-important school work. Advisors, Mrs. Trullinger and Mr. Stamps guided you closer to your final year at WHS.

SOPHOMORES

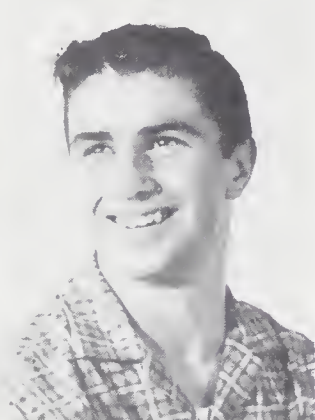

The sophomore year is a trial. Not only for you but for your teachers and fellow students. But "we've been through it all" ourselves and have come to accept Sophomoreitis as a natural phenomena. A few more months—and you will be uperclassmen. But meanwhile you must learn to be sophomores. A skit, a Welcome Frosh dance, working with your advisors, Miss Payne and Mr. Frost, and hard study—all this first—and soon you will be juniors.

FRESHMEN

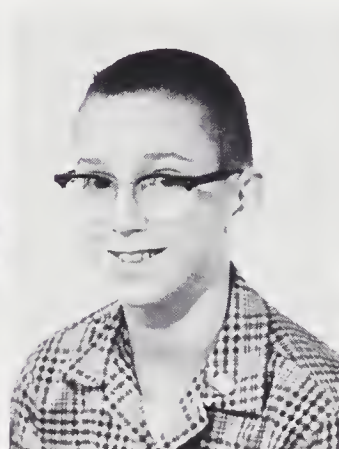

Look at them all! How many are there? These were the greetings you received at the beginning of your freshman year. But undaunted by such remarks—or paper cup hats—you earned the respect of your upperclassmen during the year. You demonstrated your good judgment by electing a charming and intelligent president and pleased the student body by selling candy canes at Christmas time and pizza; and amused them with your unusual fashion show skit. Yes, with the guidance of advisors, Mrs. Gibson and Mr. Greenlee you will be one of the best classes to graduate from WHS.

*Down along the shore
you can hear the sea
whispering for you,
whispering for me;
blink of gold, blink of green
where the lights the night edge,
and the rustle of the surf
as it lisps on the ledge.
There's a path on the sea coined of old,
And softly and silently, not to be told,
with stars that like diamonds sparkle . . .
Song of the Sea Baby — M.K.B.*
